

Windsor Soundswell Singing Workshop 23rd April 2016

Windsor Soundswell Choir is hosting its first singing workshop in Windsor. We are hoping for a day full of fun, singing in a friendly atmosphere. Our theme is St George's Day and the Anniversary of Shakespeare's birth and we aim to appeal to community choirs as well as individuals. Any profits we make will go to the Sebastian's Action Trust charity <http://sebastiansactiontrust.org/>. The musical director will be Dr Guy Bunce, who leads several local choirs.

Music for the day:

1. The Voice of the Bard (James Burgess)
 2. Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind (John Rutter)
 3. There Have Been Songs In England (Noël Coward)
 4. I Vow To Thee My Country (Gustav Holst)
- Finale with Jerusalem (Hubert Parry)

Programme:

1:00 Doors open and Registration
1:30 Start
3:00 Break
3:45 Resume Singing
5:15 Finish and quick break
5:45 Sing through
6:30 Finish

Refreshments: Tea and cakes will be provided with donations invited for our chosen charity.

Address: Oakfield First School, Imperial Road, Windsor, Berkshire, SL4 3RU

Parking: Ample free parking available at the school grounds and in the car park opposite.

There will be a sing through at the end of the day for friends and family. Entry is free, but a donation to the charity would be welcome.

Payments: Fee £10. Music will be provided. We would appreciate it if choir groups could collate their entries and send one cheque to cover all their applicants. Cheques to be made payable to Windsor Soundswell Choir (in full please) and sent to:
